UHAS and SAHAS:

The University Hearing & Appeals System (UHAS) and Sexual Assault Hearing & Appeals System (SAHAS) are the formal disciplinary processes at Northwestern. The students, faculty, and staff who serve on UHAS and SAHAS represent the University community in hearing and resolving complaints filed against Northwestern students, student organizations, and groups of students who are accused of violating University rules, regulations and policies.

Applications Due – May 4th By 5:00PM

ASG Communications Director:

The Communications Director, who chairs the Campus Public Relations Committee (CPRC), is in charge of ASG advertising, special events, publications, and public relations. As a team, the Director and CPRC also write press releases about ASG projects and initiatives and gather input from the student body. Another responsibility of the Director is to publicize what ASG has accomplished and what ASG is working on to the Northwestern community and the general public in the form of the quarterly publication, "The Speaker," the online "ASG News Portal," and the weekly Senate report, "This Week." The Communications Director also works to help student groups generate publicity for their programming and to reach out to student groups by recognizing student problems that may be remedied by ASG.
